

Call and Choice

Efendris Manurung – student of Lempin-El Generation XXIX

I give thanks to the Lord because I stand here as a student of Lempin-El. It is all because of the compassion of the Lord.

Actually, becoming a servant of God is beyond my mind because I felt happy with my job in the world with which I could provide all that I needed well. But day by day I walked in the darkness of sins. Nevertheless, God's compassion has lifted me up from my old life and I now can become the student of Lempin-El because of His calling.

Being the student of Lempin-el, the love of God comes deeper in my life. I can understand how great His sacrifice for me is that it makes me belong to Him forever. By the call and choice of God, I make a commitment in my life that being the servant of God is my last work.
